

An incisive analyst of feminist issues and world affairs, Dr. Susan Williams is an Assistant Professor of Medicine and former Chief of Gastroenterology at Metropolitan Hospital in East Harlem, where she recently led a successful campaign to unionize doctors.

Her writings include Lesbianism: A Socialist Feminist Perspective, Women's Psychology: Mental Illness as a Social Disease, Capitalism's Brutal Comeback in China, AIDS Hysteria: A Marxist Analysis (with Stephen Durham) and "Socialist Feminism: Where the Battle of the Sexes Resolves Itself" (co-authored with Clara Fraser and appearing in Fraser's book Revolution, She Wrote.)

Radical Women Publications